

Lake of Isles

1 Clubhouse Drive North Stonington, CT 06359 • 1 hour away

- Ranked one of the top golf facilities in the country, Lake of Isles has two 18-hole golf courses.
- The North Course stretches over 7,300 yards and offers daily-fee golfing
- Adjacent to Foxwoods Resort Casino, golf packages including lodging, cart, range use, and optional spa add-on available.
- The all-inclusive fee includes 18 holes with cart, range balls, yardage card, and bottled water. Rates use dynamic pricing, so booking a tee time early will save you money.
- A Pro Shop is located at the facility.
- Matches Tavern is located at the facility, featuring views of the lake from the patio. Foxwoods also has additional dining options in the resort casino area.
- Memberships are available and necessary for access to the Rees Jones designed South Course.
- North Course Rating & Slope (Middle Tees): 71.5/135
- South Course Rating & Slope (Middle Tees): 71.4/130

Acushnet River Valley Golf Course – Acushnet, MA

85 Maine Street Acushnet, MA 02743 • 1 hour away

- The 18-hole course offers up to 6,807 yards of playing.
- The front nine is built similar to Carolina golf courses and the back nine begins and closes in the woods, but is predominantly a link style design.
- Rates start at $39 walking or riding, but vary based on time and day. A same day replay discounted rate is available, as well as season passes.
- Tee times may be booked in advance.
- Rating & Slope (Middle Tees): 70.0/122

Private Clubs and Courses

- There are many private clubs and courses located in the area, with several options on Aquidneck Island.
- Most clubs offer different levels of memberships, and clubs range in level of exclusivity and price

Golf

Whether you're looking for a full 18, or a quick 9-hole course, Rhode Island has a course for you. The area offers diverse golfing options and courses with unique holes and challenges. Award winning and renowned courses are just a swing away.

Goose Run Golf Course

1 Naval Submarine Base Groton, CT 06349 • 1 hour away

- Located on the North End of the base, this 9-hole golf course is open to military and DoD civilians.
- The course can be played as is, or run through twice to get the full 18 holes.
- A clubhouse accompanies the course and houses a pro shop, food and full service bar, and an outdoor deck with fantastic views of the river.
- A driving net is available to work on your swing and club and cart rentals are available.
- A full 18-hole game and a rental cart will only cost about $45 for military members, and just a few dollars more for DoD civilians. Frequent player cards are also available.
- The course is open April through November, weather permitting. No tee time is required
- The nine-hole course is 2,466 yards, par 34

Newport National Golf Club

324 Mitchell's Lane Middletown, RI 02842 • 16 minutes away

- This 18-hole course is open year round, weather permitting, and was recently rated the "Number One Public Access Course in New England"
- Golf architect Arthur Hills designed the 7,244 yard, links-style course, which features sloping fairways, marshes, and bunkers.
- Views of the surrounding water are in abundance, and winds from Narragansett Bay challenge you in the course
- A Pro Shop and Bar & Grill complete the course, and clubs are available to rent from the shop
- Prices vary depending on time, day, and season, but can range from $65 to $150. If you're staying in the area, memberships are offered.
- Pro Golf lessons are also available, and can be done individually or in groups
- Rating & slope (middle tees): 71.9/130

Green Valley Country Club

371 Union Street Portsmouth, RI • 10 minutes away

- An 18-hole, championship course measured 6,900 yards
- Tee times can be booked in advance, including night golf
- Prices range depending on time and day
- A pro shop and bar & grill complete the course
- Lessons and memberships are also available
- A 200-person banquet hall, with dance floor & bar, is available for rent
- Rating & slope (middle tees): 71.8/125

Jamestown Golf Course

245 Conanicus Avenue Jamestown

- A 9-hole public golf course is one of the oldest public courses in the country. It was designed and built in 1895 & opened in 1901
- The course has rolling fairways and great driving areas, but will test your skills with well-manicured greens
- The Caddy Shack has burgers, sandwiches, and a bar to relax after your game
- Tee times are not required, but with a foursome can be reserved in advance
- Rental clubs are available for a fee
- Rating & slope: 69.7/110

Meadow Brook – Richmond, RI

163 Kingstown Road Wyoming, RI 02898 • 40 minutes away

- The longest public course in Rhode Island, it measures 7,400 yards and was designed by Roger Rulewich and Dave Fleury.
- No two holes are alike on this course and it challenges golfers with a Par 3 over water that stretches to 202 yards
- This facility boasts a clubhouse with breakfast, lunch, and a full bar. A brick patio overlooks the course and golf carts are equipped with coolers.
- A pro shop is located at the facility
- Rates vary by time and day, and walk or ride
- Rating & slope (middle tees): 73.3/129

Harbor Lights – Warwick, RI

150 Gray Street Warwick, RI 02889 • 50 minutes away

- A moderate length, 9-hole course
- The facility is home to several dining options, an event hall, and a marina in addition to the golf course
- Rate start at $19 for 9 holes and $26 for 18, with golf carts starting at $8 for the 9-hole course. Season passes are available.
- A pro shop is located on site, next to the Par & Tackle restaurant with a full bar and farm-to-table menu, featuring panoramic golf course and bay views
- More casual dining is available poolside at the Tiki Truck, with a full bar and restaurant menu
- Private lessons are offered with golf pros.
- Tee times can be booked in advance
- Rating & slope (middle tees): 66.3/116

