Local Beaches

Newport County

- Easton's Beach, Newport – Known to locals as “First Beach”, it is a ¾ mile surf beach that features more than just sand and ocean. Take a break from the sun to visit the Save the Bay Exploration Center and Aquarium or ride the 1950's carousel. A concessions stand, public restrooms and showers are available. Parking for a fee is available in one of the two beach parking lots.
- Sachuest Beach, Middletown – Known as “Second Beach” by locals, this beach is located just up the road from Easton's Beach. This beach is a hit with both residents of the state and tourists. The waves crash the shore of this 1.25 mile beach, with sand dunes along the back side. A concessions stand, public restrooms and showers are available. Parking for a fee is available in one of the two parking lots.
- Third Beach, Middletown – A beautiful, family friendly beach, faces east has less waves and overlooks Third Beach Harbor located near the mouth of the Sakonnet River. There are grills, picnic tables and a shade structures located near the boat ramp. Port-a-johns are located in the parking lots. Equipment rentals and a Del's Lemonade cart can be found near the boat ramp (on the south end). Third Beach is a stretch of beach that is separated into four different beaches. These include Third Beach Boat Ramp, East Middletown Town Beach and two semi-private beaches, Peabody and Third Beach Club. Parking is available at Third Beach Ramp for a fee, East Middletown Town Beach is only available to town residents with a parking sticker, Peabody is semi-private with parking for a fee and Third Beach Club is for it's members only.
- Sandy Point Beach, Portsmouth – Located at the end of Sandy Point Avenue, this beach is shallow and natural, which makes it great for families. Changing rooms, restroom facilities and picnic tables are available and lifeguards are on duty during the summer season. Ample parking is available and there is a fee to non-residents of Portsmouth.
- South Shore Beach, Little Compton – Located off South Shore Road, South Shore Beach is a small, rocky beach that has a wonderful view of the ocean. While it does not have a concession stand, there are lifeguards on duty during the summer season and port-o-johns are available. Parking is available for a small fee to non-residents of Little Compton.
- Fogland Beach, Tiverton – Located off of Fogland Road/Three Rod Way, this beach provides a great windsurfing area and beautiful views of the Sakonnet River. Lifeguards are on duty during the summer season. Please note that there are no trash receptacles located on the beach.

East Bay

- Barrington Town Beach, Barrington – This beach is home to four acres of beachfront overlooking Narragansett Bay. Located just off Bay Road, you'll find a number of concerts taking place over the summer at this beach.
